

- Adaptation of existing foundations and rooms for the installation of new types of pumps
- adaptation, in accordance with the technical documentation, of the technological system of the receiver pumping station to PJM-type product pumps
- execution of anti-corrosion protection of technological pipelines built in tank pumping stations
- delivery and installation according to the approved technical documentation 5 pcs. Pumps
- connection of pumps to existing power supply and control systems
- making the grounding and lightning protection system and rebuilding the existing wiring of the electrical system
- inspection and repair of the process fittings located in the pumping stations
- exchange of 5 pieces non-return valves mounted on the discharge of technological pumps for new
- start-up and regulation of new pumping systems